Future Shapers Workshop

The Future Shapers will hold their final workshop immediately after worship on Sunday, May 14. Our goal is to craft strategies and action statements that will fulfill our aspirations. Bring your voice and creativity to help us build the Church of our dreams. The Future Shaping team.

Celebrate Ogden Myers's Life - May 19, Friday

To all who knew the Unitarian Church's Longtime Caretaker Ogden Myers, or to some called him 'Mike,' there will be a 'Celebration of Life' gathering on Friday evening, May 19th.

Everyone is welcome to drop in anytime between 5-10pm for pupus, beverages, music and storytelling. (For anyone willing to help out with the service, please contact Molly Rowland at 988-4426.)

Come. Participate with a story or two, or just listen as others share their experience with knowing a truly one-of-a-kind guy like my dad. Hope to see you there. Aloha. (Dee Myers)

A Play

The current play at TAG at Dole Cannery is Disgraced - a Pulitzer Prize winner - about a Muslim American who tries to deny his religion - it's had great reviews and fits in with our white supremacy consciousness raising. I'm going May 19th and would love for you all to join me. Call TAG directly to buy your ticket. See you there. (Catherine Graham)

Undie Sunday: May 21, 2017

Brought to you by the Feminist Thealogy Group and the Chalice Circles at the First Unitarian Church of Honolulu.

On Sunday, May 21, please bring UNDIES [NEW Boxer shorts] to church. These will be collected and donated to Project Youth Outreach [YO] which serves homeless teens in Waikiki. Project YO is part of the Waikiki Clinic's services. By donating Undies to YO, we remember Mickey Selwyn, a long-time member of our church.

Both girls and boys prefer boxer shorts. Our church has supported Project YO for many years, with supplies, canned food, personal hygiene products, and UNDIES. Think for a minute about what life would be like without undies, or, even, without clean undies. We can help, support Project YO, and the homeless teens it serves, and remind ourselves that it takes a village, and we are part of that village, here in Honolulu. Many teens flee their homes in response to physical, psychological and/or sexual abuse. We can help.

Newsletter Deadline...Deadline...Deadline...

The deadline for copy and pictures to be published in the June, 2017 Newsletter, Kukui Lamalama is Sunday, May 21st, at High Noon.

Please send copy and photos to fuch-newsletter-team@googlegroups.com or leave typed copy in the Church Office in the Newsletter Mail Box.

Thank you for helping to make our Newsletter an exciting publication. (Charlotte Morgan)

Upcoming ADORE Meetings...

Because 4th Sunday Lunches will be on hold for a while, for our May, and June ADORE (A Dialogue On Race and Ethnicity) meetings, we will switch the start time from 12:00 noon to 11:30 am, with pizza being ordered and delivered at 11:15 am. For June, the meeting will run from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm. For the May 28th meeting, we will watch and discuss an amazing 2-hour movie called, "Color of Fear," so that particular meeting will run from 11:30 am to 2:00 pm. (Jill Rabinov)

Leeward Service To Feature Joel Merchant...

The next Saturday Service of the Unitarian Universalist Leeward Ohana (UULO) will be May 13, at 5:00 pm, at the home of Stephanie Teraoka in Mililani.

The wonderful Joel Merchant will speak about: Aging & Dying with Dignity: What Does That Mean?

Joel believes: "This is an opportunity for people to pause whatever they're doing and think about what aging and dying with dignity means to them, because it means different things to different people. The common element relates to the idea of conditions of satisfaction."

The talk will include the issue of death with dignity we read about in the national media and the laws which legalize assistance in dying, including the bill which failed this year in the Hawaii legislature.

After the Service, we have our Famous Fabulous Pot Luck. All are invited to join us. Check out page 14 in the May Church Newsletter. For more information, please contact Charlotte Morgan (808-343-0137; lottefish@msn.com).

Newsletter News...

We have created two new sections in our Church Newsletter, Kukui Lamalama:

1. UUs & The Arts In The Community This section will feature our Members and Friends who are involved in the arts in Hawaii. Check out page 10 in the May Newsletter to see what Bethany, Zaffy and Team Valasek are doing.
2. UUs Working In The Community. This section will feature our Friends and Members who are working to better our Hawaii Community. Nan, Catherine and Nancy are featured on page 12 in the May Newsletter.

Please let us know of your community involvement so we may include it in the Church Newsletter. Please send copy and photos to fuch-newsletter-team@googlegroups.com.

Yes, we still need an editor and photos. For more information, please contact Charlotte Morgan (lottefish@msn.com; 808-343-0137).

Book Discussion Group

Wednesday, June 7th, 2017 at 7:00 pm Fred Harper Room

We will discuss Gulliver's Travels by Jonathan Swift. This book is a satire on religion, government, and the intrinsic nature of man that comes cleverly cloaked in a fantastical travel adventure. Originally titled: Travels into Several Remote Nations of the World. In Four Parts. By Lemuel Gulliver, First a Surgeon, and then a Captain of several Ships. Swift has delighted generations of readers (since 1726) and his observations on the imperfections of man are as relevant today as when they were originally published. (Dan Curran)

GALLERY ON THE PALI Presents:
"Internal Integration" - Artwork by David Behlke

Honolulu's GOTP announces an exhibition of artwork by David Behlke. The exhibition will run from May 7 to June 15, 2017, at GOTP, located at the First Unitarian Church at 2500 Pali Highway.

Artist's Reception: Sunday, May 14, from 6 to 8 PM. The public is invited.

ABOUT THE EXHIBIT: David Behlke has been an active part of the local art scene as artist, gallery director, and presenter of new artists while directing the Koa Art Gallery at KCC (Kapiolani Community College).

His art is frequently colorful, organic and layered. In turn, there are layers of interpretation once the viewer allows themselves the pleasure of seeing this visual matrix as a whole, a visual cohesive conclusion. At times Behlke's work is suggestive of duality, of male and female, hence the title of the exhibit "Internal Integration."

BACKGROUND: Behlke is well versed in the making of contemporary stained glass windows. Examples of his work may be seen at Arcadia Retirement Center and 15 Craigside where his "Hawaiian Creation" anthology shines from sunup to sunset. Color and translucency are intermixed into each painted image to some degree.

"I would like to thank the Gallery on the Pali for the opportunity to display my new work. This is the third time I have had the privilege to display my artwork at the First Unitarian Church gallery.

"Additionally, I say a special thanks to Daniela Minerbi who encouraged me to apply to have this exhibition of the evolution of my images at this stage of development."

David Behlke is available for art talks for those who are interested in exploring their own personal development. (Marshall Heaney)
